Application

1. These reporting guidelines are made under section 255 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the RO Act).

2. These reporting guidelines apply to all general purpose financial reports (GPFR), including a concise financial report, of a reporting unit as defined in section 242 of the RO Act, except where the Registered Organisations Commissioner (the Commissioner) has issued a certificate under subsection 270(1) to the reporting unit for that financial year. Separate reporting guidelines made under section 255 of the RO Act for purposes of section 270 apply to a GPFR of a reporting unit in relation to the financial year for which a certificate has been issued under subsection 270(1).

3. In the event of a conflict between a requirement of these reporting guidelines and a requirement of an Australian Accounting Standard, the requirement of the Standard prevails unless there has been a determination under section 241 of the RO Act that the Standard or the relevant part of the Standard does not apply in relation to an organisation or a class of organisation.

Operative date

4. These reporting guidelines apply to each financial year of a reporting unit that begins on or after 1 July 2017.

Purpose of reporting guidelines

5. These reporting guidelines apply for the purposes of section 253 of the RO Act.

6. Under subsection 253(1) of the RO Act a reporting unit is required to have a GPFR prepared. The GPFR must be prepared in accordance with the Australian Accounting Standards. These reporting guidelines prescribe disclosure requirements in addition to those prescribed by Australian Accounting Standards having in mind the nature of organisations registered under the RO Act.

7. The disclosure requirements prescribed by these reporting guidelines are directed towards providing members of a reporting unit with information to enable them to gauge the performance of the committee of management and other holders of office in relation to the financial management of the reporting unit. In addition, the reporting guidelines seek to improve the quality of information available.
to users of the GPFR about the reporting unit’s economic support of, or economic dependency on, other reporting units of the organisation and other entities.

General requirements for presentation and disclosures in GPFR

8. It is a requirement that all reporting units apply the Tier 1 reporting requirements as per the Australian Accounting Standard AASB 1053 Application of Tiers of Australian Accounting Standards.

9. The reporting unit must disclose in the notes to the financial statements the notice required by subsection 272(5) of the RO Act drawing attention to subsections (1), (2) and (3) of section 272 and setting out those subsections.

10. Where a reporting unit’s ability to continue as a going concern is reliant on the agreed financial support of another reporting unit(s) this must be disclosed in the notes to the financial statements. The reporting unit must disclose:

a) the name of the reporting unit(s) from which the agreed financial support is derived; and

b) the terms and conditions attached to this agreed financial support.

11. Where a reporting unit has agreed to provide financial support to ensure another reporting unit(s) has the ability to continue as a going concern this must be disclosed in the notes to the financial statements. The reporting unit must disclose:

a) the name of the reporting unit(s) to which the agreed financial support is directed;

b) the terms and conditions attached to this agreed financial support.

12. Where a reporting unit acquires an asset or a liability during the financial year as a result of:

a) an amalgamation under Part 2 of Chapter 3, of the RO Act in which the organisation (of which the reporting unit forms part) was the amalgamated organisation; or

b) a restructure of the branches of the organisation; or

c) a determination by the General Manager of the Fair Work Commission under subsection 245(1) of the RO Act of an alternative reporting structure for the organisation; or

d) a revocation by the General Manager of the Fair Work Commission under subsection 249(1) of the RO Act of a certificate issued to an organisation under subsection 245(1), the reporting unit must disclose in the notes to the financial statements in respect of each such asset or class of assets or each such liability or class of liabilities:

e) the date acquired;

f) a description; and

g) the name of the entity (including a reporting unit of the organisation or that of another organisation) from which it was acquired.

Such disclosure shall be in accordance with the disclosure requirements of the Australian Accounting Standards, the RO Act and these reporting guidelines.

20. Any payments made during the reporting period to a former related party of the reporting unit, where the liability was incurred during the period in which a related party relationship existed, must be disclosed under the related party transaction note in the GPFR as though the related party relationship existed at the date of payment.2

21. All activities described within items 10 – 20 of these reporting guidelines must be disclosed in the GPFR. If any of the activities identified have not occurred in the reporting period, a statement to this effect must be included either in the financial statements, the notes or in the officer’s declaration statement (see Appendix 1).

Report required under subsection 255(2A)

22. Subsection 255(2A) of the RO Act requires a reporting unit to prepare a separate report that shows the total expenditure incurred by the reporting unit during the financial year in relation to each of the following:

a) remuneration, and other employment-related costs and expenses, in respect of employees;

b) advertising;

c) operating costs;

d) donations to political parties;

e) legal costs.

23. The RO Act allows for this total expenditure to be shown in diagrammatic form however it is not compulsory to present this information in diagrammatic form and it is at the discretion of the reporting unit on how to present this information in the report. The information is only required to be reported in one format that is, in either a descriptive form or a diagrammatic form.

Operating report

24. The Commissioner considers it best practice that the operating report:

a) be signed and name printed by officer(s) of the reporting unit; and

b) be dated by each officer who has signed the report as at the date on which the officer signs the report.

2 For example, payments of employment entitlements to former officers of the reporting unit would fall within this category.
Committee of management statement

25. For the purposes of paragraph 253(2)(c) of the RO Act, the reporting unit must prepare a committee of management statement containing declarations by the committee of management in relation to the GPFR.

26. The committee of management statement must include declarations by the committee of management as to whether in their opinion:

   a) the financial statements and notes comply with the Australian Accounting Standards;

   b) the financial statements and notes comply with the reporting guidelines of the Commissioner;

   c) the financial statements and notes give a true and fair view of the financial performance, financial position and cash flows of the reporting unit for the financial year to which they relate;

   d) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the reporting unit will be able to pay its debts as and when they become due and payable;

   e) during the financial year to which the GPFR relates and since the end of that year:
      i. meetings of the committee of management were held in accordance with the rules of the organisation including the rules of a branch concerned; and

      ii. the financial affairs of the reporting unit have been managed in accordance with the rules of the organisation including the rules of a branch concerned; and

      iii. the financial records of the reporting unit have been kept and maintained in accordance with the RO Act; and

      iv. where the organisation consists of two or more reporting units, the financial records of the reporting unit have been kept, as far as practicable, in a manner consistent with each of the other reporting units of the organisation; and

      v. where information has been sought in any request by a member of the reporting unit or the Commissioner duly made under section 272 of the RO Act, that information has been provided to the member or the Commissioner; and

      vi. where any order for inspection of financial records has been made by the Fair Work Commission under section 273 of the RO Act, there has been compliance.

27. The committee of management statement must:

   a) be made in accordance with such resolution as is passed by the committee of management of the reporting unit in relation to the matters requiring declaration;

   b) specify the date of passage of the resolution;

   c) be signed by a designated officer within the meaning of section 243 of the RO Act; and

   d) be dated as at the date the designated officer signs the statement.

Auditor’s statement

28. The auditor’s statement required under section 257(5) of the RO Act must include a declaration as to whether in the auditor’s opinion the GPFR is presented fairly in accordance with the following:
a) the Australian Accounting Standards; and

b) any other requirements imposed by these Reporting Guidelines or Part 3 of Chapter 8 of the RO Act.
