

Australian Government

Registered Organisations Commission

Education

In this section

- Education Strategy
- Information workshops
- Newsletters
- Podcast

The Registered Organisations Commission provides governance and compliance education to registered organisations and their officers, supported by practical resources. Our education activities and materials have been developed in consultation with organisations and their peak bodies and are continuously refined in response to feedback.

Here you will find information about our national Education Strategy, upcoming and previously held workshops, newsletters and our podcast. Fact sheets, guidance notes and templates can be found under tools and resources.