

Australian Business Industrial (ABI)

The Registered Organisations Commission is responsible for regulating the financial returns, annual returns, elections and disclosures of registered organisations. These records are available below.

Rules and Rule alterations remain with the Fair Work Commission and the FWC continues to host those records on its website.

About the ABI

Organisation type and coverage: an organisation of employers in connection with manufacturing and other producing industries of trade and commerce in New South Wales

Financial year: 1 July to 30 June

Date of registration: 19 October 2009

The organisation was previously a transitionally recognised association geographically based in New South Wales. As such, its coverage does not extend beyond that state.

The organisation is governed by the Council, to which office bearers are elected by the financial members of the organisation. Its elections are conducted by the AEC.

For the current rules, information on rules, rule alterations and permits, please see the Fair Work Commission website. These matters are dealt with by the Fair Work Commission.
