Registered Organisations Commission

Find a registered organisation

Unions and employer associations can apply to the Fair Work Commission to become a registered organisation. Below is a list of organisations registered under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009. For information about registering as a registered organisation visit the Fair Work Commission website.

* Why are some parts of documents redacted?

Please note: As a service to its diverse stakeholders, the Registered Organisations Commission (the ROC) publishes on its website various documents lodged by registered organisations with the ROC. These documents include Financial Reports, Annual Returns, Elections and Officer and Related Party Statements, which are found by following the link to the relevant registered organisation listed alphabetically from A to Z in the list below.

In order for the ROC to comply with its obligations under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and to adhere to its Privacy Policy, in some cases the ROC has redacted information contained in these published documents on the basis that they may disclose personal and/or sensitive information. If you have any query as to why the ROC has redacted some information, please contact the ROC on 1300 341 665.

Having trouble finding the documents you're looking for?

The Registered Organisations Commission has put together the ROC Flower \(PDF 5.2MB\) – a two page pictograph of all the ROC's tools and documents with hyperlinks.

Please note that information relating to deregistered organisations can be found at the bottom of this page.
