

Registered organisations compliance snapshot: October 2020

The Registered Organisations Commission helps federally registered organisations comply with legislative requirements, and we monitor their performance to help inform our priorities, services and other activities. Registered organisations can also use data to understand their own achievements and priorities, and to see how they compare against other organisations.

Have a look through the statistics below. You may find a new resource to help you with your compliance.

There are currently 101
registered organisations.

58 are employer organisations.
42 are employee organisations.
One is an enterprise association.

There are 440 entities, which includes branches of registered organisations.

There are currently 339
reporting units.

1,424
courtesy letters sent to registered organisations.

1,920
lodgements were made to us.
This includes documents like your annual return, ORP statements and financial reports.

96%

of annual returns were lodged with the ROC on time.

This was an increase from the previous year's 92%.

242
consultations were recorded with registered organisations about a variety of matters.

If you have any questions about your compliance, call us! We're always happy to help.

The most common consultation was for the ROC's financial training compliance audit.

169
election decisions were issued.
That's one every 1.5 working days!

21.5 days
On average, this is how long we took to issue an election decision.

99% of financial reports were lodged on time.

81% of financial reports were assessed as compliant.

32

whistleblower disclosures were received.

745

people are currently subscribed to the ROC's email service.

Subscribers are the first to hear about our latest news!

221,040

visits to the ROC website.

The most frequently accessed page was Find a Registered Organisation. This is where you can go to find your organisation's documents!

Did you know our templates were downloaded times from the ROC website?

2,894

That's about eight every single day of the year!

93% of respondents to the ROC's Annual Education Survey said that ROC templates save time and money.

719

times the ROC's Compliance Calculator was accessed.

The calculator helps organisations lodge documents on time, including financial reports, prescribed information for elections and notifications of change.

269

times our e-learning modules have been accessed (as at 1 October 2020).

We currently have three e-learning modules:

- what happens if you can't have your election due to COVID-19
- notifications of change; and
- officer and related party \(ORP\) disclosure statements.

188

total attendances were recorded for three workshops and one online discussion panel.

- 49 registered organisations represented.
- 11 people attended more than one of our events.

264

times our quarterly newsletters were downloaded.

Our newsletter is a great way to stay in touch!

1,738

times episodes from our podcast have been downloaded (as at 1 October 2020).

There are currently 15 episodes of ROCpod: Talking with the Registered Organisations Commission available.

17

financial governance training packages for office holders have been approved.

Did you know that some training packages are delivered online?